

FISCAL NOTE

HB 3261 - SB 3244

March 2, 2000

SUMMARY OF BILL: Requires that before any local education agency (LEA) could authorize the release of a student during school hours for a non-school sponsored or conducted event, there must be filed with the LEA's central office proof of liability or indemnity insurance coverage, held by the sponsor or provider of the event, of a sufficient amount to hold the LEA harmless from any liability arising from any injury which may befall the released student during the period of absence from school property. This requirement would not apply when a student is accompanied to such event by the student's parent or guardian.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

MINIMAL
